

I am strongly opposed to allowing media conglomerates to control our media even more than they do already. It is imperative that we limit the number of radio/TV stations & other media one can own.